She was employed at the Four Winds Casino for the last few years. A job she loved, the people, especially, she never met a stranger, she could talk with everyone. Tina was an animal lover, especially her cat Siami, her only companion, whom she adored, feeding the birds and kriders, a promise to her Grandpa Eddy, and her job at the casino. Tina would say, "this is my last job (working at the casino) my last rodeo" She worked at Martins Supermarket at Erskine Plaza for over thirty years, enjoying all the customers that she knew and knew her, always smiling and friendly. Tina was a hardworking and loving individual. She will be dearly missed by numerous friends she made in her life, but mostly, her family, whom she dearly loved and loved her.
